

Accent Assist

Your Custom ChatGPT AI Assistant

OTHER ACCENT PRODUCTS

Accent Assist

Accent Assist is a custom ChatGPT for Your Team. It has all the intelligence of ChatGPT but is even better because, unlike ChatGPT, it knows everything about your business, products, services, competitors, and industry.

It provides detailed answers to your questions, helps you write emails, create personalized content, and generates insights into sales deals.

The assistant also offers real-time coaching for new team members and helps marketing teams generate relevant materials quickly. With minimal training, your team can benefit from a highly intelligent assistant that saves time and provides valuable insights.

Highlights

- Customized for your business: Accent Assist understands your company, products, services, competitors, and industry-specific information.
- Sales insights: Accent Assist provides detailed information about your deals, pipeline, opportunities, and forecast accuracy.
- Personalized content creation: Assist can help you create on-target emails and personalized content that fits your buyer's needs based on the sales situation.
- Product and service information: Assist has in-depth knowledge of your products and services and can provide insights on how they compare to your competitors.
- Real-time coaching: New team members benefit from real-time coaching on your process, products, and opportunities, helping them get up to speed quickly.
